

Leourth Photograph of "The Mysterious Mr. Raffles," for Whose Capture The Evening World Offers $100.

His Fourth Day's Adventures.

Related by Himself. say: "What's da matta? What's da matta?" Crossing over to Federal street, I came to the Y. M. C. A. Building at No. 566 Federal, and went in, determined to give the young men a chance for the

the not HAT YOU MUST DO TO WIN THE PRIZE.

ming the cities of New Jersey, ply his picture, then look for him thin you see him, say to him:

World, or the Dally World, or ie Sunday World, or the Saturday ew Jersey Supplement of The vening World of Sept. 22, he will

The checks will be cashed at he cashier's office of the INTER-TATE FAIR AT TRENTON. The Mysterious Mr. Raffles wears

BY MR. RAFFLES.

The would have thought it possible?

Hackehave spent an afternoon at the Instance Fair Grounds at Treation, are thousands of persons had copies for the Evening World's New Jersey aturday Supplement containing a plendid picture of me, and yet have a plendid picture of me, and yet have the upformed. I did not expect to escape marks, easily. I knew that there were men of the crowd who had seen me when I pals wer captured at Newark, and it did Dan Mr. seem likely that I would carry the feather of the grounds with me. I recognize the man as a person who had the of the property man, the of the mass and this filled me with so that there were men as and this filled me with so that the mass and this filled me with so that the mass and this filled me with so that the mass and this filled me with so that the mass and this filled me with so that the mass and this filled me with so that the mass and this filled me with so that the mass and this filled me with so that the mass and this filled me with so that the mass and this filled me with so that the mass and this filled me with so that the mass and this filled me with so that the mass and this filled me with so that the mass are person who had the of New Jersey ended so late in the series of the mass and the filled me with so the barber shop of J. W. Hanks and the filled me with so the barber shop of J. W. Hanks at the mass and the filled me that the series and the mass and the filled me that the series and the mass and the filled me that the series and the filled me with so that the mass and the filled me with so that the mass and the filled me with so that the filled me with so the filled me with so that the filled me with so the filled me with so that the filled me with so that the filled me with so the filled me with so

Talks with the

By T. O. McGill.

O you know," said the Cashier Gitl, as she put a stamp on the weekly letter with sister this morning "that I never have been able to get ! into my mint how

It was that a mai "What has given your mind this pur-ticular running high jump?" said the

"It's personal observation," she went on; "my friend Maggie is a silverware checker in one of them home-destroyers. that goes under the alias of a swell all-night restaurant, and she has the late trick three nights a week. I went up to call on her fast night and I've been thinking about what I've been tellin' you. While I was sitting behind her cage I could see all the restaurant, and just about midnight a man I know, who has charge of a big manufacturing house downtown, came in about a quarter to 12 and looked at his watch and said to the waiter: "Can you fix me up two nice ten lobsters in a box to take home? Put a lot of hot cracker dust around them so they will keep hot, and hurry them along. I promised my wife I'd be home

'All right,' said the waiter. 'Will ou have anything yourself?"

"Not a thirg, I'm in a hurry." "Then he lit a cigar and sat down at a table and held his has and his cane nd kept his eye on the door where the than two or three minutes when another man came in and the man at the table got up and said: "Hello, Dick, what are you doing in here?"

"Dick, who seemed to be an old friend, said: "I've just came in to get

"Dick said:

"All right, eaid the other man.
"Well, say! do you know," said the Cashier Girl with a disgusted chuckle,
"that at 4 o'clock, just as the assistant ceshier, was taking me and Maggie home, them two men paid their checks and took up their packages that you bould hear the ideless jingling in and got a cab to go home, because they couldn't walk."

"I've belonged to the 'Hot Bird in a Box Society' myself," said The Scribbler.

The Evening World's nome Magazine, Tuesday Evening, September 20, All the Comforts of Home

By Gene Carr. Cashier Girl, The Irish Fair May Fill "the Boys" with joy, but for Smith It's "Nahochlish"-The Smiling Roof-tree for His.

The Slogan of - Fiduciary Booze

By Albert Payson Terhune,

YEAR or so back, just abaft of the Where kind Mr. Belmont's neat fortune accrues, His Grace. Bishop Potter, constructed a

And priss agents chortled this marvellous news:

"Come one and come all of you Big folk and small of you! Tank up on Archiepiscopal Booze!"

music hall next, under clerical aus-Flashed in the limelight, regardless of

Yet, strange to relate, both these sanc thed hospices Engountered what greatly resembled a frost. But now comes the later,

More startling and greater, News of a bar by Philanthropy bossed. or years to the Savarin folks have been

To drape their internals in liquors su-

And never a one of the thirst-slayers

That a Surplus increased as drinker waxed bearier; Till (publicity courtin')

Says Honest Paul Morton: 'Tis fiduciary boose that right off it! This one's on me! It may give poor

Morton and Hyde and the others a profit.

And fatten the poor little Yellow Dog.

What policy-holder,

Younger or older, Can refuse to "ball up" with that grand end in view?

His Friendship.

T the annual business meeting of a country church in the western part of the State several of the brethren spoke of the annoyance caused at the Sunday services by the habit, 's which some persons indulged of splitting upon the floor, especially in the neighborhood of the stove, says the Philadelphia Ledger. The pastor suggested that if they had a couple of cuspidors in the church perhaps the annoyance might be lessened. Whereupon a good deacon

"I move that Brother A. and Brother B. be appointed as cuspidors for the en-suing year."

Life Insurance Company, & Founded by ROY L. M'CARDELL.

OFFICERS: John A. McGall, President. James Gazzaziz Snyde, Vice-

Chancey M. Dowho, Chairman Borrd of Salary Rais-

Now Is the Time to Get Insured!

owded upon the sons of insurance ials after they have quit the big setting $14,000 a year when he was "just out of college," the Board of Directors commend the President's action in send-ing $250,000 to Havewad College to found an opposition society to Yale's "Skull and Bones." The happy conceit of calling the new society "Ducks and Drakes" has occurred to the President.

the company's expense will be allowed an extra bonus of a dollar and a half dent states how much money he sent A Canard N ailed. President McGall and Vice-President on each thousand of insurance they to Republican Headquarters to save saye will attend the performance of have dreamed of writing, provided they from National Dishonor.

"Just Out of College" to night. They attend the Legislative Investigation and look forward to securing some valuable cheer every time our generous presi-counts who cheer will be promoted.

A LL members of the Slylics to the number of two hundred now in the city on the weekly junket at and of insurance they to Republican Headquarters to save us

BONE-US!

A Pestiferous Policy-H older Created a Scene.

TURKISH

the race tracks. The $2,000,000 loss charged to sundries and typewriter supplies were a mere matter of mistaken judgment in stocks to that amount that unfortunately turned out to be worthless. It is pleasing to note, how-ever, that as these stocks, an issue of on their own water by the officers of the company, said officers have shown a personal profit. Cost of Insurance.

GENE ARR

UR plan of insurance costs more than any other company. This fact alone is sufficient refutation of the charge that our company is a mere money making concern and not a fiduciary institution, a sacred trust.

The company is not making money. It costs us more to carry on the business than we get in on old premiums. Hence the necessity of paying the Slylics extra inducements for new business.

At ated a scene in our sumptuous offices yesterday by declaring that the word "bonus" meant "bone-us" so far as they—the policy holders—were concurred. This is false. We have never assessed a policy holder—as yet. All contumacious persons of this sort should let their policies lapse and join the Rayal Arcanum if they don't like the way we do business.

President McGall will answer to no man, except Mr. Hughes. fact alone is sufficient refutation

BOARD OF DIRECTORS: Pref. Josh M. A. Long, Philanthropist. Old Doctor Lemonosky, the

Noted Specialist. Cassie Chadwick, Promoter, Cleveland, O. Madame Therese Humbert, Promoter, Paris.

A PESTIFEROUS policy holder created a scene in our sumptuous offices yesterday by declaring Clerks present with the non-ledger accounts who cheer will be promoted. THE Board of Directors wishes to Hence the necessity of paying the Siylies extra inducements for new violated their sacred trust to the business. EDITED BY AYER.

May Manton's Fashions. Daily CUCH a blouse and

He Has No Intentions.

All perplexed young people can obtain expert advice on their tangled love affairs by writing Betty. Letters for her should be addressed to Betty, Post-Office Box 1354, New York.

son to believe she cared for me. For instance, she told a distant relative of instance, she told a distant relative of their five wished to monopolize her) that he was no gentleman when he tried to quarrel with me and insuit me. On icaving she said she was sorry to see me go, and also niat she was very glad she met me. I thought that here was my chance, and asked her if she would give me her address, so I may with her consent cill on her, but I was asking too much of her; that I was asking too much of her; that I was asking too much of her; that the could not do it, but that we might both hips to meet again some time. After I dentited I build out her address. Would it be proper for me to meet her in the street troused her house unexpectedly? If not, nicess edvise a venraing heart wher to do?

She Dancel Amay.

She Does Not Care for Him. I would not bother with her if I were pound of ham or bason into dice and try until brown; while not add two tablespoonsful of vinegar. Beat one egg until light, add to it two table-spoonfuls of sour cream, then add to this one finds. ions. In the illustration it is made of tatsette and cuffs of ecru between-seasons wear on the street as well. as in the house. While it is a waist and made over a fitted lining, the double-breasted elfect, together with the collar, renders it que o appropriate for outdoor gown, and a little later some slight wrap can be added to give possible needed warmth. As a waist, however, it will a found useful and destrable throughout the appropriate for many pretty wools as well as for the long list of The quantity of ma terial required for the medium size to 43-4 yards 21, 4 yards 27 or

21-2 yards 44 inches wide with 5-8 yard of Pattern 5150 is get

Call or send by mail to THE EVENING WORLD MAY MAN-TON FASHION BUREAU, No. 21 West Twenty-third street. New York. Send ten cents in colu or stamps for each pistreen side co Obtain York. Send ten cents in coin or stamps for each plantern and ex-IMPORTANT—Write your name and address plainly, and al-ways specify size wanted. Patterns

Energy of Radium.

lousewife's Exchange.

it the ham, stir over the fire one min-nie t'll it thekens, and pour boiling hot over the lettuce; mix carefully with a fork and serve immediately. To Clean Porlieres.

M ARCELLE—You would better take the portieres to some of the dycing establishments, as they also have appliances and understand such work so much better than does a navice. I think waffle irons may be obtained at any of the large hardware